"My nine-year-old daughter is bright and achieving well, but her teachers make negative comments on her handwriting and presentation. This year, for the first time, her teacher has suggested that this is because she is lazy. I feel the problem is a lack of skill. How can I help her?"

.....and visit the THRASS (Teaching Handwriting Reading And Spelling Skills) website at www.thrass.co.uk and order the handwriting tape and overwrite sheets. It's brilliant."
