

THRASS ONE-DAY FOUNDATION COURSE, CARDIFF, JAN 7, 2009

Fantastic! Interactive, informative, accessible and useful. Excellent delivery. An enjoyable day!

A whistle stop tour of THRASS – very well delivered, lots of tips and VAK links. Very helpful on two levels: leading teachers and teachers teaching children.

Interesting and fun. It was well set-up and everything was explained clearly. A very enjoyable day and I feel I learnt a lot.

Lively and vibrant presentation throughout. Clear explanation. Hands-on approach. Whole school approach will be essential. Looking forward to having a go with the Sing-A-Long songs.

Very good presentation. Course content good and easy to understand.

Excellent. I am now really looking forward to trying out these great ideas in school tomorrow. Loved the interactive songs – great fun!

Excellent presentation. Good resources to take away.

Excellent presentation, good quality handouts.

Very insightful with some practical ideas I will utilise in class. Very enthusiastic and fun presentation.

Very good, learnt a lot from the course and will now be confident in using THRASS!

Very useful. Will be using lots of ideas back in the classroom.

I feel confident to teach THRASS in my own classroom.

Felt the course was informative. I feel I can help the children with knowledge of THRASS (reading, writing, spelling skills). Enjoyable day!

Informative course (as new to THRASS) on how correct phonetical teaching can enhance children's knowledge of reading and spelling skills.

Very interesting and well presented, Keen to extend our stock of THRASS resources – especially Sing-A-Long. Informative and entertaining. Loved the suggestions for the games for each of the ten stages of THRASS.

A well organised and well researched INSET. Some excellent ideas and methods for spelling. A lot of information for a one day course – very quick pace.

Good presentation of THRASS ideas. Useful games and interactive activities to use in the classroom. Useful materials provided.

Clear and well laid out. Looking forward to going back to school more confident delivering THRASS.

Very interesting. A great deal of pointers into implementing THRASS when back at school.

Useful information to put into practice. Lovely resources.

Good content – lots of resources. Interesting presentation.

Very informative day with a lot packed in. Well delivered and enthusiastic deliverer. Would use programme with older children but not with younger (pre Y2) although some activities like computer handwriting activities are suitable for all.

Very enjoyable and informative.

Enthusiastic delivery. Explained very well. Good refresher and demonstration of the new resources. I enjoyed the examples of how it can be used daily in class and the progression for the whole school.

Lots of information and ideas for use within classroom.

Very detailed with lots of explanations of the layout of the charts and other available resources.

A very informative and methodical presentation of THRASS. A wealth of ideas and options delivered in an enthusiastic manner. An enjoyable day.

Very informative. An excellent insight into how THRASS works. An excellent resource to aid children's spelling. Very useful resources.
