

THRASS STORY using all of the Consonant Keywords

by Luke Bessant, Year 1, Ravenstone Primary, London

One day the bird, the rabbit and the cat and the kitten were going to a party. The duck wanted to go to the party but they didn't let him because the duck didn't want to go to school. The duck had to go to school because the Queen was coming and she brought her chair but she forgot her watch. The Queen brought her dog with her. There was a ladder and the ladder led to the top of the school. At the top of the school was a tank and in the tank was a fish and by the tank was a bottle of coffee and next to the fish was a dolphin. And in front of the tank was a gate. And next to the coffee was a bowl with an egg inside. Then suddenly they saw a hand sticking out of the ground. Inside the hand was a pot of jam. Suddenly a giant appeared and a giant was in a cage. The cage was on a bridge. The giant's leg was very bony and on his head was a bell. The giant's pet was a mouse. The mouse kept on hitting something with a hammer and that something was a lamb. The giant used a net as his cutlery. The giant liked football but he always used his knee not his foot. Back in school the Queen had a picture of King Charles II and it was made out of ink and a picture of a panda and a picture of a hippo. In the pictures it was raining. Some cherries were hanging from a big cherry tree and the giant always wanted to climb the tree but he was too big to climb the cherry tree and the cherry tree was up at the top where the tank is and where the giant is. When the giant was angry he always hit his wrists. The giant didn't get any sun because he was at the top of the school. The giant's wife's dress was freezing because they lived at the top of the school. The school was going to have a horse and they had to collect the horse from the city. The city was cold because the city was made out of ice. Inside the ice was frozen treasure. Sharks guarded the treasure. The person who sent the sharks lived in a station and that person was a chef. The chef had a tap that didn't work. He got a letter. The letter said that someone in the chef's family lost their thumb and instead of a thumb he had a feather. Then he lost his voice because it went up his sleeve. Suddenly there was some water. The water turned into a waterfall. The waterfall had a wheel in it. The wheel was made out of a quilt. The giant yawned because his zip was undone. Then the giant drank some fizzy water. It made him sneeze. Then a laser hit the school. The laser was made out of cheese. The end.
